Sports Awards Rubrics

The following are rubrics for the individual awards that will be given out by each athletic team during our Athletic Awards Night on Friday, May 16, 2008. Please use this as a guide when selecting the deserving student-athlete.

1) Defensive Player of the Year: (selected by team coach(es))

- ✪ Is a defensive presence during the league game
- ✪ In basketball, the student-athlete makes the most steals, secures defensive rebounds, and/or continuously defends the opponents' best offensive player and "shuts them down" during the course of the game
- ✪ Attends team practices regularly
- ✪ Conducts self in a Christian manner at all times

2) Coaches' Award: (selected by team coach(es))

- ✪ The criteria is set by the team coach(es). This award can be given to any student-athlete on the team based on team practices or league games or a combination of both. Coaches will state the reason the particular student-athlete receives the award during Athletic Awards Night.
