

Summer Reading List 2008

Required reading:

1. Holes by Louis Sachar, Bantam Doubleday Dell Brooks Publishing 2000 (240 pages)
2. Someone is Hiding on Alcatraz Island by Even Bunting, Berkeley Books 1984 (136 pages)
3. Maniac Magee by Jerry Spinelli, Scholastic 1990 (184 pages)

In a regular spiral notebook or composition book, please do the following:

1. For Holes, there are specific chapter questions to answer (see attached list). Keep your answers short and specific.
2. For Someone is Hiding on Alcatraz Island, please do colored illustration summaries. There are twelve chapters in this book. You will need to create a colored illustration for each chapter. You may do more than one for each chapter, as long as there are a total of twelve colored illustrations. Please use crayons or colored pencils only. Each illustration must be at least one-half page. (full page if you are using a composition notebook)
3. For Maniac Magee, please write a 1/2 page summary for each of the three parts of the book.
